THE NEIGHBOR IN LAW.

BY L. MARIA CHILD.

Continued.

The child took the offered cake with a humble little courtesy, and carefully held out her apron to prevent any crumbs from falling on the floor. But suddenly, the apron dropped, and the crumbs were all strewn about. "Is that a little bird?" she exclaimed eagerly. "Where is he? Is he in this room?" The little friend smiled, and told her that was the music-box; and after awhile she opened it and explained what made the sounds. Then she took out a pile of books from one of the baskets of goods, and told Peggy she might look at the pictures, till she called her. The little girl stepped forward eagerly to take them; and then drew back as if afraid. "What is the matter?" asked Mrs. Fairweather;

"I am very willing to trust you with the books. I keep them on purpose to amuse children." Peggy looked down, with her finger on her lip, and answered, in a constrained voice, "Aunt Turnpenny won't like it if I play." Don't trouble yourself about that. I will make it all right, with Aunt Hetty," replied the friendly one.

Thus assured, she gave herself up to the full enjoyment of the picture books; and when she was summoned to her work, she obeyed with a cheerful alacrity, that would have astonished her stern relative. When the labors of the day were concluded, Mrs.

Fairweather accompanied her home, paid for all the hours she had been absent, and warmly praised her docility and diligence.

It is lucky for her that she behaved so well," replied Aunt Hetty; "if I had heard any complaint, I should have given her a whipping, and sent her to bed without her supper."

Poor little Peggy went to sleep that night with a lighter heart than she had ever felt, since she had been an orphan. Her first thought in the morning, was, whether the new neighbor would want her service again during the day. Her desire that it should be so, soon became obvious to Aunt Hetty, and excited an undefined jealousy and dislike, of a person who so easily made herself beloved. Without exactly acknowledging to herself what were her own motives, she ordered Peggy to gather all the sweepings of the kitchen and court into a small pile, and leave it on the frontier line of her neighbor's premises. Peggy ventured to ask timidly, whether the wind would not blow it about, and she received a box on the ear for her impertinence. It chanced that Mrs. Fairweather, quite unintentionally, heard the words and the blow.

She gave Aunt Hetty's anger time enough to cool, then stepped out into the court, and after arranging divers little matters, she called aloud to her domestic, "Sally, how came you to leave this pile of dirt here?"

Didn't I tell you Miss Turnpenny was very neat? Pray, make haste and sweep it up.

I wouldn't have her see it on any account.
I told her I would try to keep everything nice about the premises. She is so particular herself, and it is a comfort to have tidy neighbors."

The girl, who had been previously instructed, smiled as she came out, with brush and dust-pan, and swept quietly away the pile, that was intended as a decoration of frontier war. But another source of annoyance presented itself, which could not be quite so easily disposed of. Aunt Hetty had a cat, a lean scraggy animal that looked as if she were often kicked and seldom fed; and Mrs. Fairweather also had a fat, frisky little dog, always ready for a caper. He took a distaste to poor poverty stricken Tab, the first time he saw her, and no coaxing could induce him to alter his opinion. His name was Pink, but he was anything but a pink of behaviour, in his neighborly relations. Poor Tab could never get foot out of the door, without being saluted with a growl, and a short sharp bark, that frightened her out of her senses, and made her run in the house, with her fur all on end.

If she ever ventured to go out on her own door step, the enemy was on the watch; and the moment her eyes closed, he would wake her with a bark, and a box on the ear, and off he would run.

Aunt Hetty vowed she would scald him.
It was a burning shame, she said, for folks to keep dogs to worry their neighbors cats;

Mrs. Fairweather invited Tabby to the house, and made much of her, and patiently endeavored to teach her dog to eat from the same plate. But Pink sturdily resolved he would be scalded first; that he would. He could not have been more firm in his opposition, if he and Tab had belonged to different sects in Christianity. While his mistress was patting Tab on the head, and reasoning the point with him, he would at times manifest a degree of indifference, amounting to toleration; but the moment he was left to his own free will, he would give the invited guest a hearty cuff with his paw, and send her home spitting like a small steam engine. Aunt Hetty considered it her own peculiar privilege to cuff the poor innocent, and it was too much for her patience, to see Pink undertake to assist in making Tab unhappy. On one of these occasions, she rushed into her neighbor's apartments, and faced Mrs. Fairweather, with one hand resting on her hip, and the forefinger of the other, making very wrathful gesticulations. "I tell you what, madam; I won't put up with such treatment much longer," said she; "I'll poison that dog; you'll see if I don't; and Ishan't wait long, either, I can tell you. What you keep such an impudent little beast for, I don't know, without you do it on purpose to plague your neighbors."

[To be continued.]

News for VOLUNTEERS.—The N. York Gazette says, that in marching, soldiers take 75 steps per minute; in quick marching, 180; and, in charging, 150. We suppose Arista and Anipidia, on the morning of the 9th of May, when they scampered through the chapparal, for the Rio Grande, followed by Capt. Walker and his Texan Rangers, with nothing on but their shirts, went at the rate of about 200 steps a minute.—
Prov. Gazette.

The Union gives more letters from Gen. Gaines—but the following note closed the correspondence:

War Department, June 2, 1846.
By direction of the President, Brevet Major General Gaines is relieved from the command of the western division of the army, and will repair to Washington without delay.

Brevet Brigadier General George M.
Brooks is assigned to the command of the western division.

W. L. MARCY, Secretary of War.

From the SANDWICH ISLANDS.—Advices from Honolulu have been received to March 14th. Hon. A. H. Everett had arrived there, on his way to Chihi. The U. S. ship Cyane, Com. Mervin, arrived there from Mazatlán on the 12th.

Three of the crew of the whaler, Morrison, of New London, named Church, Kirby, and Royce, were drowned in Gray's Hat-bor.

The Belgian brig, Express, which sailed from Honolulu, August 22d, for Canton, with $300,000 in specie on board, has not been heard from since.

The exports from Honolulu for 1845, have been $371,441, of which $202,700, was furnished in provisions, &c., to 643 vessels.

The CAMANCHES.—The Houston Telegraph denies that this tribe of Indians desire to quarrel with the Americans. They like us, but hate the Mexicans.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1846.

THE OREGON QUESTION.—By the mails yesterday morning, we learn that this vexed question, about which so much has been said, is now in a fair way to be amicably settled; and we ought to congratulate ourselves that such is the case, for two nations like England and the United States, should never go to war again, particularly about so unimportant a matter as Oregon.

We sincerely trust that our difficulties with Mexico will also be speedily adjusted and a friendly intercourse with that nation resumed. It is wrong, morally wrong for the nations of the earth to appeal to arms as a proper way to settle their disagreements, when it can be so easily done by umpire. Let us be at peace once more with the whole world, and remain so forever.

The New York Express, of Friday says, that Company H, 2d artillery, Capt. Swartzout, 1st Lieut. John Sedgwick, 2d. Lieut. H. J. Hunt, Brevet 2d. Lieut. H. Copee; total, 90 men. A. S. Witherspoon, Assistant Surgeon—left New York that day, in the ship Henry Pratt, for the seat of war. The Express adds that it is the finest body of men that ever left Governor's Island. It will be recollect that this is same Company that left Fort Adams, about two weeks ago.

THE LARGEST YET.—Rider received a lot of Strawberries on Saturday, grown on this Island; some of which measured four inches in circumference, and all of them were of a large size. His arrangements, for the receipt of Strawberries are such, that he is supplied daily, with a fresh lot, of the very choicest article, and fresh from the vines.

SPOTS ON THE SUN.—There is now an unusual number of spots on the sun; there being no less than six different groups, says a correspondent of the New Haven Herald.

A parcel passed through the New York Custom House, the other day, addressed to "the Rt. Rev. Lord Bishop of New Jersey." It will be recollect that Bishop Doane, of New Jersey, travelled in Europe, a short time since, so we presume they thought that we, in this Republic, believe in Lording Bishops.

THE DRUNKARD, OR THE FALLEN SAYED.—This great moral play will be performed at the Town Hall, this evening. It has met with great success everywhere, and has called forth the approbation of all those who feel an interest in the cause of Temperance. The various characters are admirably sustained, and all the terrible horrors of a drunkard's life, are pictured forth with astonishing accuracy. The effect of this production has been powerful, and done much to aid the cause of Temperance.—We advise all our friends to witness its performance this evening. See advertisement, in another column.

A detachment of United States soldiers, from Fort Adams, in this harbor, accompanied by a drum and fife, together with the U. S. flag, paraded through our principal streets last Saturday, for the purpose of inspiring patriotism in the hearts of green horns, to induce them to enlist in the army.

It is said that there were more strangers in town yesterday, than for many previous years. And we understand there is also a very large gathering of Friends. We dislike, exceedingly, to hear so much noise and confusion on the Sabbath, and many of those who visit Newport "Yearly Meeting Sunday," come for the express purpose of "having a spree," and they pay no regard, whatever, to the sacredness of the day. This is not right. And we are sorry to add, that all of the Confectionary and Fruit Stores, on Thames street, that we saw, with the exception of Rider's, were open all day. Neither is this right.

The immortal Seth Luther went into the State Bank, Boston, on Friday last, armed with a sword, and demanded a thousand dollars, in the name of the President. Officer Ryder was sent for, and carried him off. The Post states that he did not draw his sword.

We have received a very polite invitation from CAPT. KEGG, of the Pleasure boat "ELEANORE," to take a sail with him at any time; we shall avail ourselves of his kind offer, as soon as we have leisure. And we take this opportunity to recommend the "ELEANORE," and her experienced and polite commander, to all those who are fond of sailing in pleasure boats.

We commence, to-day, publishing the arrivals at the principal Hotels. We will publish the arrivals at any of the smaller houses, if they will send us their list, for it would be impossible for us to send to all the Hotels in town, every morning, to collect their arrivals.

LATEST FROM BRAZOS ST JAGO.

The steamship Alabama, Capt. Windle, which took down Col. Peyton's Regiment, returned last evening. She encountered a violent gale on the bar. She left the Brazos on Sunday morning. Col. Peyton's Regiment disembarked, and encamped on the beach, where were already Col. Davis' Regiment. All volunteers were expected to rendezvous at Burris, which is at present the head-quarters of Gen. Smith.

Captain May, with a squadron of dragoons, pursued the retreating Mexicans some sixty miles west of Matamoras, but so quick was their march that they could not even come up with their rear guard. He is satisfied that the Mexican force at that point at the present time, is not more than four thousand men. Every thing goes along as smoothly as possible at Matamoras. The citizens are all pursuing their business, many of them making money by trading with the soldiers, and all learning to believe that the Yankees are not such outside barbarians after all, as they were led to believe them to be.

It is now ascertained—and Gen. Taylor, who will not be accused of exaggeration, admits it—that the less of the Mexicans on the 8th and 9th—particularly on the latter day—was much larger than was at first supposed. A gentleman who went through the hospitals in Matamoras, and who took some pains to ascertain their number, thinks it must amount to six hundred.

Many of the cannons, which they sunk in wells and elsewhere, have been recovered.

Capt. Paga is recovering; Maj. Lear, who crossed the country from Fort Jesup, and for whose safety fears were entertained, has reached the camp in safety.

A quantity of the trophies of victory, taken or found on the battle field, is deposited at Point Isabel. They form quite a cabinet of curiosities.

They are all now burning to have another crack at the Mexicans, and the prevailing opinion is that "Old Rough and Ready" will before long indulge their desire. Capt. May, and his command, are still at Point Isabel.

The only U. S. vessel off the Point was the schooner Flirt. The following is the list of vessels blown ashore in the gale of the 28th ult.—U. S. steamer Col. Harney—will be got off; steamer Augusta, ashore badly; steamer Leo, do, do, inside the bar; sailor Waterman ashore, will be got off when unloaded; schooner L. M. Hitchcock, from Aransas Bay, bound to the Brazos, is reported to be lost in the same gale.

The pilot boat schooner L. M. Hitchcock, from Aransas Bay, bound to the Brazos, is reported to be lost in the same gale.

It is understood that the Tariff bill will come up in Congress to-day.

Thirty Companies organized in Alabama, in less than two weeks after the call from Gen. Taylor. Great country.

Florida will be a rival of North Carolina, in the manufacture of turpentine.

The census of Illinois, taken the present season, shows that it is nearly alongside of Massachusetts, in population. The aggregate number is 661,990, of which 348,425 are white males, and 308,798 white females, and 4,002 colored persons.

There are 16 daily newspapers published in Cincinnati, eleven of which are English, and four in the German language.

The whole crop of apples, in one county of Kentucky, is likely to be destroyed by a species of worm, different from any hitherto seen in that region.

The purchasers of the condemned slaves, "Pons," on Wednesday despatched her from Philadelphia to the Mediterranean.

Fanny Forrester was married, on the 2d inst., at Hamilton, Madison county, to Rev. Adoniram Judson, of the Birman Mission.

LATER FROM MEXICO.

The brig Helen McLeod, Capt. Marston, arrived at New Orleans on the 3d inst., from Mexico, bringing advices from that city to the 21st ult., two days latter than those brought by the Louisiana. We take the following items from the Delta of the 4th:

The Editor of the Indicator of the 21st ult. says that he has been informed, from a reliable source that the steamers Montezuma and Guadalupe had actually sailed for Havana under the British flag.

The Indicator, in speaking of the blockade by Captain Fitzhugh, says:

"And are we to remain calmly looking on, seeing the hated flag of the stars waving in the breeze?

Shall we be citizens less worthy than those of Matamoras, whose valor will be spoken of as an immortal example of bravery? No! a thousand times no! And be he a thousand times cursed, who, in such a trying time as this, abandons his post on the walls of heroic Vera Cruz!" The editor goes on to say, that the Mexican people should have no farther consideration for their enemies, and the cannon of the castle of San Juan de Ulua should be fired at the first American vessel that comes within their range.

The same journal, referring to the order issued by the Government, that every American citizen who should not leave the port within the time stipulated, would be sent twenty leagues into the interior, recommends that none of those falling under their grasp should be pardoned; insult for insult, and life for life, is his motto.

On the 21st, El Indicator calls on the Government to arm every one of their vessels as privateers and to give letters of marque to every Mexican who asks for them, in order, as the editor significantly expresses it "to give the Yankees hell!" The article winds up by hoping that Mexicans will not betray their country, but pay the Americans in equal coin. By an advertisement in that paper, we see that the Bishop of Vera Cruz calls on the public, by order of the Government, to devote three days (25th, 26th, 27th) in offering public prayers for the success of the Mexican arms against the Americans.

RE-OPENING OF THE UNITED STATES CLOTHING STORE.

A still greater revolution in the sale of READY MADE CLOTHING. New Store and new Goods, at the old stand, where the public have been favored with so many good bargains. 91. Thames street, one door north of Messrs. W. B. & E. J. SWAPS.

THE PROPRIETOR of this Establishment has the pleasure of informing the people of Newport and its vicinity, that he has leased the new and commodious store, 91. Thames street, for the purpose of carrying on the Ready Made Clothing Business, where the public may be assured that they will always find on hand the largest assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the place, as well as the lowest prices. If I can but induce the people to call upon me, I will give them the most positive proof of the truth of this assertion, as I am determined to secure for the United States Clothing Store a tremendous run of custom, and aware as I am, that competition is so severe, that the only mode of success is to offer my Goods at a small advance on Cost. Will the people call upon me? I will give them the most positive and pleasing evidence of what I say; still more, I will not urge them with undue persuasion to purchase what they do not want. The custom of forcing goods upon people has become so prevalent that they are sorely perplexed to know where they can go and be allowed the use of their own judgment in selection of Goods.
